

COOKIE POLICY

Carsted Rosenberg Advokatfirma GmbH

Last updated: 19 February 2026

1. Introduction

Carsted Rosenberg Advokatfirma GmbH ("CRA", "we", "us", or "our") uses cookies and similar tracking technologies on our website. This policy explains what cookies are, how we use them, and your rights to control our use of them.

This policy should be read alongside our Data Privacy Policy, which explains how we use your personal information.

2. What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your computer or mobile device when you visit a website. They are widely used by website owners to make their websites work, or to work more efficiently, as well as to provide reporting information.

Cookies set by the website owner (in this case, CRA) are called "first-party cookies". Cookies set by parties other than the website owner are called "third-party cookies". Third-party cookies enable third-party features or functionality to be provided on or through the website (for example, interactive content and analytics).

3. How we use cookies

We use first-party and third-party cookies for several reasons. Some cookies are required for technical reasons in order for our website to operate. We refer to these as "essential" or "strictly necessary" cookies. Other cookies enable us to track and target the interests of our users to enhance the experience on our website.

The specific types of first and third-party cookies served through our website and the purposes they perform are described below:

Essential Cookies

These cookies are strictly necessary to provide you with services available through our website and to use some of its features. Because these cookies are strictly necessary to deliver the website to you, you cannot refuse them. You can block or delete them by changing your browser settings however, as described below under "How can I control cookies?".

Analytics and Performance Cookies

These cookies collect information that is used either in aggregate form to help us understand how our website is being used or how effective our marketing campaigns are, or to help us customise our website for you. We only place these cookies on your device if you give us your explicit consent.

- Google Analytics: We use Google Analytics to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. This information is processed in a way which does not directly identify anyone. If you do not consent to these cookies, we will not track your visit.

4. How can I control cookies?

You have the right to decide whether to accept or reject non-essential cookies. You can exercise your cookie rights by setting your preferences in the Cookie Consent Banner that appears when you first visit our website.

You can also amend your web browser controls to accept or refuse cookies. If you choose to reject cookies, you may still use our website though your access to some functionality and areas of our website may be restricted. As the means by which you can refuse cookies through your web browser controls vary from browser to browser, you should visit your browser's help menu for more information.

In addition, most advertising networks offer you a way to opt out of targeted advertising. If you would like to find out more information, please visit <http://www.aboutads.info/choices/> or <http://www.youronlinechoices.com>.

5. Updates to this policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time in order to reflect changes to the cookies we use or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. Please revisit this Cookie Policy regularly to stay informed about our use of cookies and related technologies.

6. Contact us

If you have any questions about our use of cookies or other technologies, please email us at info@carstedrosenberg.com or contact us by post at:
